

IIS Privacy Policy

These are the highlights of our complete privacy policy.

Scope

This statement applies to all activities of Information Integrity Solutions P/L (IIS), including this website.

Personal information

We collect personal information that you choose to give us. This is likely to include basic contact details and sufficient other information to provide services to you that you ask of us.

We do not collect identifiable personal information about you if you only browse our website.

Uses

We only use your personal information for the purposes for which you gave it to us and related purposes that you would expect.

We do not share, trade, or sell information about you with other organisations without your permission unless it is to provide a service you have requested of us, is required by law or there is a threat to somebody's safety.

We will not send you marketing material unless you give us permission.

We analyse non-identifiable web site traffic data to improve our services. We do not use cookies or web bugs.

Your rights and choices

You may gain access to personal information about you that we hold. You can have us correct any errors or delete the information we have about you.

You may opt out of any further contact from us, including any marketing.

To protect your privacy and the privacy of others, we may have to gain evidence of your identity before we can give you access to information about you or change it.
